NOTES:

- Individuals and companies performing residential construction, or a combination residential/commercial construction totaling $600 or more in materials and labor must be licensed as either a residential builder or a maintenance and alteration contractor. Individuals or companies providing services totaling less than $600 in materials and labor or who are functioning as a subcontractor for a licensed contractor on a residential or combination residential/commercial construction project are exempt from licensure.

- Unlicensed Activity – Effective December 21, 2007, penalties were increased for a person practicing as a Residential Builder or Maintenance and Alteration Contractor without a license.

First Offense: Misdemeanor Fine of $5,000 - $25,000, or prison for not more than 1 year, or both.*

Second and Subsequent Offenses: Fine of $5,000 to $25,000, or prison for not more than 2 years, or both.*

**If the offense causes death or serious injury it is a Felony. Fine of $5,000 - $25,000, or prison for not more than 4 years, or both.*

- Michigan Compiled Law prohibits a person from conspiring to circumvent the licensing requirements of the state relating to persons who are to perform work on a residential building or residential structure.
- The license lookup is one of the online services at www.michigan.gov and also available directly at <http://www.dleg.state.mi.us/verify.htm>. Consumers who want personal assistance in looking up a license can call the Builders Licensing Unit at 517-241-9254.
